My affection for a thread transcends mere admiration; it's an enchantment, a delicate bond woven with fervor and care. Each strand holds within it the whispers of creativity, the promise of creation. I find solace in the rhythmic dance of the needle, as it follows the path laid out by my imagination, stitching dreams into reality. With every knot tied and every stitch sewn, I pour a piece of my heart into the fabric, weaving a tapestry of memories and emotions. This thread, with its myriad colors and textures, becomes more than just a material—it's a conduit for expression, a vessel for love and passion. In its simplicity lies its beauty, and in its embrace, I find an everlasting joy.

Quick warning for anyone planning on using these tools, majority of the ones I've checked so far contain malware. If you're desperate run them on a disposable VM/RDP or use Sandboxie.

There's a good chunk of shitty reposts of pre-existing tools; this is one of them. It's unsurprising particularly if OP ripped this off random sites/telegram groups lol.

Key trick: O.S. Tools on GH or something else. :-)
