I really like the banner. I was surprised when I first saw it.

Right before this banner shows up I posted a same color/vibe story in my barbershop ig to announce the closed days !

Might upload to check the similarity later

ALEDIO - April 10, 2023, 12:10 am

I confirm, this banner gives much more color and is done really well I must say. Even though I don't celebrate Easter this is a really nice addition.

In reality I also live quite close to the Vatican so it's certainly not because of the place where I live I usually celebrate Easter with my family and I take this day as a day of leisure and celebration but I neglect all the religious side there is behind.
