Thread: Is CPA Marketing working well in 2023?

Is anyone in here content locking or using clickbank, cpagrip/build, lospollos, ogads, etc. ?

I am new to this and understand the idea, but I'd like to ask if anyone has any experience or what they would recommend using. I hear lots of bad reviews about cpagrip nowadays. Trying to learn from others what is best.

If anyone has any up-to-date content to learn from I would appreciate it so so much as well. I found a site that supposedly gives a 7week trial and allows u to put popup ads on certain websites (blogs,etc.). It then embeds it and gives you a link to spread it around. No idea where tf to spread it yet lol. Are people really that dumb they click and sign up for this shit? Imfao.....

Thanks. Many of you guys have been very generous to help me learn and I am very grateful.

I have and I have a plan all setup and good to test out using CPA grip with their content locker. Wish me luck!! I hope it works!!

I don't understand this industry all that well but I will learn as much as I can as I go.

CPA = Cost Per Action

Worked with lockers before where I gave out free giftcard codes but to be able to see them they have to finish a survey so its basically first come first serve

That's a really good idea!!! I have an idea to try and compliment it with ewhoring lol. Not sure if it will work or not, but I am sure there might be some horny dudes desperate to unlock some online e girls pictures for free LOL. Going to try some unorthodox shit to try and switch things up.

The plan runs kinda deep and it would take a lot to type, but that's the gist. The only problem I see coming is people putting in fake info and whatnot. Couldn't that lead CPAgrip to locking me from getting paid?

I like the gift card idea. Lots of ideas to branch off that so thanks!!
