Hi HF.

Guys I Have Money Ready and I want to ($500+/DAY =>THE ONLY WORKING and...) From Trappy and if you know these man or you bought the guide before please tell me cause I saw all vouches are positive and when search about his name On HF I see like 12 negative opinions about his eBook can you help me pls or if you know other guide or something like that

Well, try your luck. Buy it and try it. Or go to their thread and read actual customer reviews. I personally have no idea about Trappy's ebooks/methods. But In general, money making ebooks in most cases usually make money only for their sellers.

I'm not sure if this is the right section for this. This should probably go in market discussion somewhere.

I personally avoid all ebooks promising such grand returns, but that is not to say this is a bad method. This book has an incredible amount of views and replies. It seems as though this book is far more reputable than the average methods that are released. I would personally be surprised if it is a complete dud.

With a quick browse through the thread there is a mention of a guarantee. If I were you I would look further into this guarantee and if holds a potential money back element to it. I can't see anywhere, where it actually states this though.

Maybe message these people who have a negative opinion and just dig deeper into why they don't like the book. it looks like he has so many sales, it is only natural that a some people won't like it, regardless of it's quality.

Just mange your expectations and expect that the sale pitch is likely an unrealistic figure, as you should with all money making methods.

If you end up buying it, I'd like to hear you opinion on it.

Personally I would not buy it. You will likely be disappointed.

Couldn't agree anymore, no offence to anyone selling eBooks but they are just... just not worth. There are many other ways to make money, I would keep browsing and find something else other than an eBook.

If he was making $500 a day why would he be SELLING an ebook? Something to think about. :)

SIM 420 - May 7, 2023, 9:59 pm

Should just ban ebook sales on HF because frankly 99% of this shit is garbage

He used to sell some pretty bullshit "account hacker" tools for facebook among other things that just tried to crack accounts with a password list. Insane number of sales if I remember correctly but there was backlash on these products as well because of how he marketed the tools.

Definitely remember that. Junk like that ruined the HF marketplace the past few years.

I bought a E-Whore guide from him, can vouch for the ROI cause I made back like 300$. Now I wouldn't buy any E-Book but rather packs for the model itself and even that, cant find any quality ones too really use. He also put us in a Discord group back then which is now dead lol. If u want to make money E-Whoring is probably time consuming and kinda nerve wrecking but it gets you money if you really hustle. You can easily make around 50-1000 per day depending on the quality of your "model" or how hard your milking your "fans". I used a free pack back then that came with the E-Book and honestly now that I look at packs it was way more included in that free pack than anything else on the market right now. I'm talking bout 1000+ photos and over 300+ videos with atleast 50 verification pics and 10 verification videos lmao. I'm struggling right now to find a good pack so if anyone can lead me to a good seller, thank you

xSe7eNx - April 29, 2024, 10:17 pm

Do not buy it. His CEO edition guarantees a refund, which i asked for. And he still is refusing to give me it. So I'm about to open a deal dispute.

Like others have said, careful when buying these products. These modern day grifters are just selling dreams.
