Hi,

We're a big agency and we're looking for chatters for OF that can work full time schedules & that already have experience and fluent in english.

Competitive pay structures and highly active accounts with 100k+ subscribers.

Message me your Discord if you're interested in more info ?

I am too new so cannot send you a message yet to share my Discord UN, but if you want to reach out to me then I can respond I assume.

That said, can you give me kinda the basics of the position, the pay, and any requirements please?

Hey, I want to learn how to chat effective and maybe become a good worker for your OF "agency"

I want to really get good at it and help you guys out, and of course making some bread
