Seriously wondering if anyone would care if I just disappeared and stop fighting. Constant daily struggles are just too much for me, I feel like everyone will be better off with me gone. I doubt anyone will comment and that's ok. Just needed to ldek anymore

Life has been hellish since the war in Ukraine started. Wait till the war is over and if things don't get better, idk

There's always people who care, some might not show it and well, some tend to be busy when you need them which frikin sucks balls but if something were to happen they would be completely rekt. Mind if I ask, what's your situation, the guy above mentioned the war, are you from Ukraine or what?

Constantly being accused of shit I didn't do, been used and abused in every relationship I've been in, feel like a burden to my family cause I have to live with them with my child that his dad doesn't want. I can't do anything I want to do in life. Majorly depressed and I self harm.

I could go on but I'm sure no one wants to listen to me complain

Your family wouldn't gain anything with you gone.

If you're depressed, that's your body signaling the need for change.

Couldn't agree more.

Things are truly hard for a lot of people right now, so know that you are not alone! Stay strong my friend. <3

Some times life needs a restart, some times not.

Noone knows except you pal.

Not kill urself tho, move in another city if needed xD

I would love to move but unfortunately cant. The way my life is unfolding, everything just is too annoying, giving up seems easiest

Grind yourself hard and keep your chin up. In the end things will only get better.
