Anyone else getting it? I'm currently downloading it on PS5 but can't play it till it's release on the 21st. Can't wait!! Looks so good.

I'm watching gameplay for it right now. I might get it.

I absolutely loved the first game, but I'm really hesitant on this one. I'll probably wait and see some gameplay and reviews for the first week or two before I pull the trigger and buy it.

I haven't played the first one so that helps for me :D

This is exactly where I'm at. After sitting in development hell for awhile I'd rather wait a bit and see.

I remember playing it on the 360 way back when. I think I will have to get this and give it a go.

Dead Island was one of my favorite games, hopefully the second will be as good as the first.

Thoroughly enjoyed the first one all those years ago so will definitely be picking this one up at some point. If anyone fancies a co-op playthrough shoot me a message!

Blxnco - April 22, 2023, 11:10 pm

I am thinking of buying it, although it would be nice to have others to play it with.
The gore and fighting definitely looks sick.

The_unknown - April 23, 2023, 2:38 am

At the moment I only watched videos but I might buy it

Sky - April 23, 2023, 8:52 am

If there were anyone who'd play through the campaign with me I'd absolutely get it.
The first DI was awesome. Loved it.

Hubris - April 23, 2023, 10:23 am

Can't wait to play it.

Looks amazing.

Envy - April 23, 2023, 12:31 pm

I've been playing it, so far, so good. Enjoying it!

trixed - April 23, 2023, 4:06 pm

I played this game and put in so many hours back in highschool, crazy to see this now coming out.

Can you confirm if the human enemies take like 20-30 enemies just to die in this? If there are human enemies. The reason I ask is because I played Dying Light the other day and I loved it up until you had to slash the human enemies 20-30 times just for them to die

Honestly, I'm about 3-4 hours of playtime in and have not encountered a human boss or anything.

Saying that though, could very well open it up and be fighting one next time I play so I'll keep you updated.

What a breath of fresh zombie air though, I bought DayZ because I wanted a good zombie game - it's crazy how much people mod the game to NOT be DayZ, 90% of the servers I joined were zombie-less PvP servers. I was about to buy Dying Light 2 but, seen Dead Island 2 was released and went for it.

I played both original games, sad I had to wait 10 years for another but definitely well worth the wait!
