Is your site getting traffic, thanks to your exciting content and savvy social media strategies.

Looking to boost subscriptions, unlock the power of automated push campaigns, and quickly target your content to different segments?

Gravitec is an easy-to-use web push service that boosts your website's traffic by converting one-time visitors to subscribers.

We have a lifetime deal of the Business plan - with the following perks:

Unlimited websites

Unlimited users

Unlimited notifications

Unlimited automations

Unlimited integrations

RESTful API

600k subscribers by website

Gravitec helps you increase website traffic, stay top of mind, and boost conversions by making it a cinch for visitors to subscribe to your push notifications.

Install Gravitec in seconds using the WordPress plugin with one click, code-free integration, or add a code snippet to the main HTML template of your website.

The WordPress plugin lets you compose and send automatic push notifications without ever visiting the web dashboard.

You'll be able to automatically send a push notification after publishing an article on WordPress and even add images and UTM tags to your notifications.

Choose where and when your permission prompts appear, plus what they say!

Gravitec makes it easy to create targeted campaigns by allowing you to pull basic segmentation information from a subscriber's browser.

Then, you can target users by the operating system, country, city, language, and browser, so you can create precise campaigns.

The advanced segmentation options allow you to target subscribers based on their behavior.

You'll also be able to automatically or manually create these segments for maximum flexibility and engagement.

Use basic and advanced segmentation for precise targeting of your campaigns.
Send the right content to the right subscribers using no-code automations you can set up in just a few clicks.

You can automatically send campaigns based on notification elements from site metadata, allowing you to save time while getting the most out of all the tools.

With RSS to Push, you can immediately notify subscribers about new content, or send a daily or weekly roundup of your most popular content with Push Digest.

Best of all, you'll be able to create a welcome message for new subscribers and send drip push campaigns for targeted notifications over time.

Get more out of your push notification campaigns by using Gravitec's set-and-forget automations. Is your website a tasty buffet of great content, and you want to make sure people keep coming back for more. ("All-you-can-eat hot takes!")

Gravitec helps you increase your site traffic, improve user engagement, and boost conversions with targeted, automated push notification campaigns.

Make sure your site has more pull than ever.

This offer was on Appsumo and has now expired, it was only 100k subscribers per website.

The average monthly cost ranges from $24 p/m to $149 p/m and more for the "business plan"

So - you will receive a login to setup your website, please send me the URL(s) and your email address to get setup.

This is also "White label" meaning this is without Gravitec referral branding for subscribers.

The pricing is as follows:

- 1 Website - $99
- 5 Websites - $129
- 10 Websites - $149
- 25 Websites - $199

No refunds after account has been setup.
