Paid for a $208 Voucher ended up couldn't use it so will contact Uber Support to see if they can help.

At least the voucher actually applied ?

Just make sure your account is in good hands first because I guess my account is locked or something since it doesn't accept any payment method but I'll be contacting Uber support let's cross fingers I can use it so didn't waste $100 Cashapp. Well yeah I wasted ?. I never done any fraud payments on my Uber account though very frustrating.

Vouched just wish it worked for me, recommend though for sure not too many real Uber vendors around.

The people need that restock man where is it at!?

Ever Flow - May 24, 2023, 4:36 pm

So I bought a 50$ voucher and it gave me 75$ which is a nice bonus.

I made one successful order and everything was fine. I still had 50$ left and after I tried to order again I get payment failed.

I contact the seller and he told me it's because I need a payment with funds regardless of voucher but the problem is just the voucher since I can buy if I choose my card as payment and not the voucher.

I'm not going to ask for a refund since I mean I spent 25$ and ordered 25$. There's definitely a problem with the voucher though not sure if I got unlucky or it's happening to other people too.

What? I'm not scamming anybody if this is Rexi from telegram Uber support told you when you contacted them that you were restricted from the app. Meaning it has nothing to do with the voucher, if you used to spam refunds from that device claiming food never came like mostly everybody did at one point, that messes up your whole uber account and or device.

Didn't run off with his money. He's been waiting for a resolution like others have they just wait unlike him. He comes on here complaining he was scammed when its just a waiting factor.
