Do you collect anime merch? Is it something you have a passion/hobby for? I personally collect gundam/gunpla model kits, but that's pretty much it. What about you?

Vip?r - May 3, 2023, 4:39 pm

The only anime merch I own is a Daki TCG card, an Anya keychain, and an Anya sticker.

I did want to get a massive anime figure when I was younger but ended up not.

Ya figs are expensive. At least with gunpla it's kinda more wallet friendly

Just do it. Who cares what people think!

Zen4Accel - May 6, 2023, 4:22 am

They're expensive as well :hella sweating:, Might need to save a few before getting to them, I'm also gonna build a proper shelf for some stuff.

Fair enough. This is why I'm digging gunpla, because it's so wallet friendly. Unless we talking about perfect grades ?

I thought we would get far with 3D printed ones and it could be less costly but we're nowhere near good when it comes to 3D printing models. It may work for some Mecha tho.

It would still need some human touch, polishin it to perfect before it gets any good looking.

3d printing is pretty dope to print custom weapons for model kits tbh!
