In terms of animation. Do you prefer classic or modern anime? Or are you 50/50?

Beherit - May 3, 2023, 7:56 pm

Nowadays, I'm enjoying classic anime more. I put a halt on watching seasonal anime and added them to my Plan to Watch list.

Been going through my list and prioritizing the old stuff more. A lot of them are hidden gems.

I don't really like the old style animation though IMO. I did recently re-watch Princess Mononoke and I did appreciate Studio Ghibli's animation back then. But I DO absolutely love Demon Slayer's animation style. Easily my favorite.

I like both, always nice to go back to the classics once in a while. Haven't watched any recently though.

Probably modern for now, classic for the classics obviously.
Modern for classic anime's would be odd looking.

Aeowulf - October 3, 2023, 5:53 am

Hey! A question I can actually answer!

I'm going with Classic!

Deany - October 3, 2023, 5:54 am

Thank you for the replies. Make anime great again?

MAGA!

Oh god... that felt gross. I don't like it.

Excuse me... ?

Sorry, too similar to something else you used to hear a lot.

Crya - October 3, 2023, 11:28 am

Mostly 50/50, I feel like it's hard to capture the dark feeling that old cel animation shows like Trigun,

NGE and Cowboy Bebop had.

Could be nostalgia talking though.

Agree, me too

I like both, sometimes I really dislike modern anime when they try to use cgi, most of the times it suck ass imo. Yet some modern anime has the most beautiful art and animation.

Came here to look for cool new series for my girl & I.

I actually don't have a preference, but really do enjoy all of studio ghibli's work ?

Deany - October 4, 2023, 3:44 am

Wow this thread really popping now. But y'all should go post on my other anime threads too :)

Any old animes like Fairy Tale or Black Clover that you know of? ?

Deany - October 4, 2023, 5:30 am

Haven't seen neither of those so couldn't tell ya :/

Sometimes I really do check if the animation is good first before the storyline. So I'm also 50/50 here.

I once watched an anime adaptation but when I saw how awful the animation was, I dropped it without any second thought. That anime was released in 2021.
