Are you a fan of cosplay? Personally, I prefer when a baddie cosplays my favorite female character. ?

Haha what I just read, in any case everything is legit. I myself am not a big fan, in fact I think they are quite useless haha but obviously it's a kind of art and it deserves its respect. I've seen that some cosplays cost quite a lot and some are really defined down to the smallest detail and I still find them beautiful even if they don't attract me much.

Depends on where you buy it from, can find them real cheap on alixpress if someone is on a budget. Might not be genuine, but it works if you need it fast for cons and stuff.
