Might not take too long, looks pretty wicked in CS2 ;)

I had Talon dopp #3 & #4

Took ages to sell haha ? Sold them in the CS2 hype.

Oh absolutely. For me, I highly value the float due to my OCD lol. I pick out one flaw on the knife and I can't stop looking at it. So I might end up keeping it if nobody else wants to snag it. I'm really just looking for a P2 gamma doppler, but don't wanna quick sell such a nice float.

I'm interested in trading + adding usd to get a talon dop if you still have any.

Only the rich collectors buy low float items as they all have a hefty overpay for them, its about knowing and waiting for that collector to message you and say they want to buy up.

No I sold both of them. I kinda regret it now but I needed money at that time so no hard feelings
