Thread: Mums

I would love to hear stories about great Mums

Mine is basically a lunatic who cooks the best (right after me), but never can shut up about clouds. Makes 50 pictures of them everyday.

I did realise how intelligent she was when I bought her a laptop...Next time I saw her she was all over social media. And I noticed I only had to explain her computer things just once.

Love my Mum

They say Heaven is underneath the feet of your Mothers.

I've always had a weird relationship with my Dad, but my Mom is someone I can always go to and who'll always support me even if the world was against me.

Never heard that before. Where does it come from?

(I noticed you usually come back with a question in threads)

How about your Mum?

Bless your mother bro haha.

Mums are amazing and as a Son I am doing my best to give her the best of the best that life can offer.

Agree, I do the same.

But it's always a fight trying to give her money when the whole family gathers for a 3 course dinner she cooked and paid for. I mean 15 people.

Eventually I came up with the idea to leave the envelope of money in her freezer.

Then message from her: "SON, THAT WASN'T NECESSARY " ?

(I'm her only son after 5 sisters so I'm pretty special lol)

They play a crucial role in any child's upbringing. Having loving parents is one of the most important factors that can shape someone's future.

I love my mum definitely.

Although during my teenage years..

Quite an unfortunate way to repay her for what she's done.
