Has anyone visited the northern coast of Spain? Any "must sees"? The weather there seems amazing and I would like to travel there one day.

Been there a few times. Loved the churches in Oviedo

Out of sincere curiosity, why?

Morocco is different vibes especially when the weather is hot and nice, I've been there already before but years ago and to be honest I really enjoyed it. But when I went I didn't go for that long so this time I'm planning to go there and stay for maybe two-three weeks.

There are many clubs that you can easily find if you like to party, I always go to Shôko. To stay I would go to W hotel. Everything is close by, the beach is literally a 10-second walk away and its rooms are fantastic!

I have only been to Madrid, the city is very nice
