So review:

- SUPER quick
- I think he over delivered a bit
- None seem to have dropped or anything so very solid service!

Interested 100% - vouch copy or could we do a 50 OF sub test run?

Also can you do over 500 subs afterwards? Need like 1k/mo per model on 6 models if it works well

What's the point of driving traffic if its a free site and not a paid subs.

I 100% agree . I was wondering though as when you go ahead and increase your only fans sub fee you will lose all your subs he gives you because they dont resubscribe .

So if your not charging sub you only can charge ppv and tips /messages .

Your missing the whole sub revenue

Subs aren't where it's at. If you do OFM and are relying on subs, you need to get new chatters. Messages are where it's at homie. The girlfriend experience is super important. For me, I earn 5x more from messages compared to subs. I've seen people earn 10x the amount from messages than subs.

Yes in understand that also. Maybe its just a bit more work having to manage all these messages then just posting for subs hahaha your right im not knocking your business brother.

your right im not knocking your business brother. Definitely a lot of work to chat all day, but that's where outsourcing comes in to play. I didn't think you were knocking it, no worries. Just wanted to share some info. I hope I didn't come off as defensive or anything
