Thread: Telegram IMPOSTER. BEWARE!

Sholi - May 12, 2023, 6:49 am

My TELEGRAM is @SHOLIGG and I don't have any other account there. Some customers have reported to me that someone is using my name to trick people.

Whatever you do, ALWAYS get a CONFIRMATION from me on HF before you do any deals off-site. Thank you and stay safe.

Not trying to point fingers but I created this thread 1 hour ago and this user visited my profile like 57 minutes ago:

Which is also about the same time he messaged me on Discord.

This guy used to contact me and ask for money to stop impersonating me. Dork claimed he made 20k a month, I doubt it.

He's in multiple groups too, that's how he gets the off site contacts

Members should always verify on-site they are speaking to the correct person.

Or better yet, just deal on site.
