? Radiant Services Review – Buyer Beware

I've purchased over 30+ services/accounts (I have the screenshots to prove it) from Radiant Services in the past and while I used to recommend him, that's no longer the case.

Radiant was once the go-to guy, delivering quality services and accounts. However, things have gone downhill recently. He's been MIA for months — likely due to his Disc0rd/Telegr@m accounts getting constantly taken down — and it seems he can't handle the surge in demand (his group now has 5000+ members).

I'm still waiting on a Spotify Mix order from 4 months ago, and communication has been non-existent. At this point, I don't recommend purchasing anything from him. He's clearly overwhelmed, and the reliability just isn't there anymore.

If you're thinking about buying from Radiant, I'd steer clear for now.

But does he deliver?

I've been following him for quite some time, I have him as a backup for my current dealers, he always seemed trustworthy, at least from what I saw on Telegram over the last two years, with people using his services and speaking highly of him, and I often saw him making multiple deliveries at once. This is the first time I've bought one of his services, and he disappears for two days, then says I'm on his waiting list. It's been over a week now, and I have no idea if I've been scammed or if he's legit and just doesn't have time to deal with the services he offers.
