Yeah, you can freely download the ad image, but nothing else.

If you want to share the method, you should check the link, bc it just gives the cryptobob.png, that is the ad.

The buy link requires to pay around 30$.

rokitlabs - June 22, 2023, 12:36 am appreciate the share, gave it a read & am in awe that someone is actually selling this (or trying to) for $30 bucks...

i feel like its a collection of snippets, auto generated by google search results after they return an exact match text example :P

it will def. lay out the basics of the basics, but not much more in my opinion - cheers
