I just lost my best friend to opiates. The pain this drug causes is very real.

I hope your day is great.

Sorry for your lost bro, sometimes it can be incredibly difficult to come to terms with the departure of someone who held a significant place in your heart.

Take care and keep safe. God bless you.

I am very sorry to hear of your loss. I lost many friends and even almost my own life many years ago to opiates. It's truly an awful thing.
