Hackforums is a tech site.

You should look on cyber-criminal forums, not on tech-forums.

Anyway it seems like you didn't look properly.

You're* and no, I'm not, I just am used to heavenly worlds, and this did not turn out to be what I had planned it to be. The devil is winning. I can't change the people. They're dumb. And they are gone with the devil themselves, in totally different ways to what I am.

When I'm released -- I'm hoping I can find happiness, and be rich, and pursue God, and change the world for the better.

So many people are gay in this world in this time. It won't be until I die and all these gay activists are dead that being gay is made illegal.
