Thread: Hackman Egg Emerald Expired

SIM-5367118 - June 6, 2023, 2:39 pm

I got my first HUM egg 5 days ago and didn't even notice the notification I had gotten about it so I didn't put it in the incubator. Is there any way I can recover it?

I feel so disappointed in myself that I didn't realize, I was looking forward to my first one! How hard are these to come by on here?

pms - June 6, 2023, 2:43 pm

Dont worry man they are fairly easy to get! just post more :)

It should be in a week before it will be gone on your account. Just be more active around the forum and for sure you will get more eggs.

ModernEHustle - June 6, 2023, 10:48 pm

So you've only got a week or so before they expire? Hmm, I suppose I'd better incubate.

Today I've gotten lucky, I only made a couple posts and I already found 2 eggs! Excited to try the game out and grow my little fella lol.

No the egg will expire after 24 hours if you don't put it in the incubator.

Ahhh I'm sorry to hear that, that's such a bummer! Do you know what the difference is between the eggs? Or can you point me to the documentation for each egg if there is some.

Hey no problem at all. I point everyone new to HUM to that thread. Flav did an awesome job putting it all together. Anyway, have fun with the game and just remember to stay on top of your HUM. ?

I actually lost two lately from not being on the board so much. ? If you complain about anything Omni will threaten to give us less of them. lol

I definitely wasn't complaining I was just disappointed in myself lol, if it seemed that way that wasn't my intentions. The next day I actually ended up getting 2 eggs, so no issues. I didn't realize how often you get them, I thought I had lost a goldmine.

On the bright side, there are increased egg drop rates now so you can get them easier and more frequently ?

The bonanza of bytes is over now. Omni has cancelled all egg lotteries. The eggs can no longer be used for anything but the game at present.
