If you don't mind spending $18, I would recommend buying this Anonymous Guide. You can also buy it for 7500 bytes once you have enough if you'd rather. There are a couple of other anonymous guides on here as well, I think they are all paid though.

There are many posts in here about this kind of stuff. I have made a post telling the best methods of staying anonymous online. Please remember you can never be 100% anonymous though, obviously.
