Interesting, that's for sure. I hope my spreading-oriented websites can use your ads service? (I can use a proxy system if necessary.) Have a good sale.

Im more likely targeting people who would like to start a SMMA or own an ecommerce website because I have experience in that, but the lessons can work for spreading sites as well for sure.

It depends on a lot of aspects. Niche, keywords, website quality etc.

No, you add me as a marketing manager in your google ads, so I can create and manage campaigns.
