Thread: Started a business 3 months ago, 63k profit later it's being acquired for +75,000!

All completely online grown organically from twitter & telegram. Began in March and listed for sale early June!

Total revenue = £66,085.81 which in USD is roughly $83,684.46.

Total profit = £62,949.65 which in USD is roughly $79,713.14. This doesn't include the proceeds from the business being sold!

The thing I'm most proud of is the profit margins being so high at 95% which is a nice change from previous businesses I've ran. It's refreshing.

For those interested, it is completely re-doable. Which is my plan to repeat it with the same blueprint once this one has had its sale go through.

Rough revenue breakdown;

£10-20k from monthly recurring subscriptions

£3-15k a month from promotions

£0-5k a month from affiliates

Below is the revenue on Stripe from the subscriptions, the remaining revenue is established from promotions & affiliates.

I'm happy for you.

Love seeing the figures in £'s. £42k is a big deal.

This only took a few K to get started but even that isn't required, it just expedited it.

You got this!

Good job. What is the industry of the service you're selling in?

Chroem - June 16, 2023, 3:48 pm

Love the grind. What kind of service were you providing? What niche?

The Pact - June 16, 2023, 6:46 pm

Was this in the adult sphere or not? Great job!

- Heisenberg - - September 14, 2023, 7:32 am

Could you share a little information about the service you did?

Your thoughts could help many, to do something in that sphere, and make a living.

Also interested in this. Looks like OP hasn't been on in a couple months now though. Either he's been living the high-life or working harder than ever to reproduce.

Really late to say this haha, but congrats. The feeling of starting up a business, having it be successful, profiting a solid chunk like that, and then even having interest from someone to be bought is incredible. Actually selling it even more so. Big W.

M0rticia - June 20, 2024, 6:06 am

Don't know if I missed it, but would you share how you made this work? And investments made along the way.

Martjin - July 15, 2024, 12:58 am
