How much, what payment methods do you accept, recoveries on it, will it come with the email, and does it have any offenses?

I accept BTC, looking to get $300 OBO. Does not come with email, can transfer that over. Haven't played Runescape in a while and remembered I had an account that I could sell. The RS3 account is also high level if that matters. I think it had a gold buying warning through messages and then a macro warning when my account was hacked through a phishing attempt. They were able to unban it after I emailed Jagex about it.

Very true, but also I've been on this forum 10 years and had a lot of reputation before hf wiped it all PM me we can work something out.

I got offered $240 by Chicks Gold, but they require a 2-4 week payout time.

Looking for instant payment. Willing to take $200.
