Thread: I'm back with a new mindset!

doobinator - June 20, 2023, 8:32 am

Hello fellow HF users, I used to e-whore back in 2015 and made a good chunk of money from it, mind you I was still in highschool and a "Big chunk" is a small amount in this day and age. However I am looking to get back into it but am unsure of how it works these days, any tips or tricks would be greatly appreciated.

Happy hacking!?

Nice. I don't think I'd have the time or energy to do ewhoring lol

I would assume it's a lot more difficult these day's and very saturated, is this true?

So you used to E-Whore and now you're back to E-Whore? Doesn't sound like a new mindset at all.

Nonetheless, welcome back, best of luck OP.

Well go ahead friend and do it as sex its a powerful emotion and it will always sell as people are driven by it

As an advice its to make your profile as real as posible

Many guys try to trick me on tiktok ,insta ,twitter etc

So when i check their account its new with only 2 or 3 photos ,posts ,only male followers

So i smell imediatly that its a fake account made for ewhoring
