Pureminer is a decent one.

If you are expecting any support on it, you will be sad.

Purecoder is not giving any usefull support.

Car dealer doesn't teach you how to drive as well.

best one is just to make your own, simply use a runpe and encrypt your miner.

Also guide him from where to get the runpe and then encrypt?

Use an open source miner

<https://github.com/UnamSanctam/SilentCryptoMiner>

Download the project then compile it by yourself.

- Crypting

You just need a x64 runpe and an evading method (something strange for Antivirus to call the miner and the runpe library then inject it).
