Can someone give me some metal and or rock band recommendations? I like songs with crazy drums in the background (like jordison) and I would like to find some others than slipknot.

Billy Talent, Bleed from within, Wage War, Vanna, Ghost, A7X, Geovanni and the hired guns, those should get you spiraled into a playlist whip up on Spotify or a similar app's playlist generator in case you dig em.

I highly recommend you check out Brand of Sacrifice. They are absolutely killing it in the modern metal scene. This should satisfy your craving for epic drumming.
