Thread: Ban/limit/separate all of the get rich quick schemes from everything else

Airbourne - July 11, 2023, 12:10 am

Honestly. Its every other thread in the market and its always the same tired, nauseating BS: how they've made soooo much money of this one method (sometimes even several, wow!) and now due to the kindness of their heart, honest character unicorns shitting rainbows they have decided to sell the method for "only" a couple of hundred $.

Isn't this scam super old by now? Its the same financial guru type of crap you see on tiktok or with cryptobros. Promises of huge gains with little investment of time if any at all, creating FOMO in people by having made up "discounted" prices for the people who buy in first, etc etc. Methods these scams use don't change, probably never will but what does change is the userbase - for every experienced member who can tell its a scam there may be 2 new users joining who will fall for it after all, that person is peddling their shit and look reputable.

I don't think that coasting on the edge of the rules should be allowed as an excuse here. Its preying on the desperate or gullible few. Be your own boss, work only for yourself, wake up whenever and do whatever you like! Why are these parasites allowed to be here? If I sold you a trojan horse while saying that it has always worked for me and I opened so many doors with it but then after you ask for it I told you that its in the back garden, its the one made out of plastic, you'd call me a scammer. What is so different about these people?

I'm losing my temper just thinking about it, how all these rich financial geniuses are so generous to share their secret money making totally-not-get-rich-quick schemes, Its only missing a "not financial advice! not a financial advisor!" disclaimer somewhere in the post to complete the post.

To prove my point that this is out of hand and that some "vendors" are doing waaaaaay beyond what they should be allowed to do, I have taken the liberty to take screenshots of the 1st two pages of the "premium" sellers section. Being as lenient as I could possibly be:

12 of the only working, 100% guaranteed, free money (or maybe risk-free money?), most profitable, thousands of dollars per month of profit of methods on 2 pages.

4 separate amazing methods from just one seller. And its risk free. And its thousands of dollars per month. And I'm going to puke if I see more of Sashas manipulative if not straight up deceptive sales tactics.

So lets back up.... Varane has SOME REAL MONEY. But Trappy right below that says their method is THE ONLY WORKING and MOST PROFITABLE method! OH my GOD! What is happening? Its almost as if these people are trying to peddle the same old scam where someone does get rich - them - by selling you courses and their uh "qualified" mentorship. Auto pilot. Beginner friendly. Daily payouts. EARN $$$ WITH ONLY 5 MINUTES A DAY?! I CAN EARN $$$? OH MY GOD HOW MUCH WOULD THAT BE IN A DECIMAL VALUE?

AN AMAZON DROPSHIPPING SCAM?! How can this be allowed on the forum?

I'm Stanley HF's helper bot. The OP (original poster) of this thread wants everyone to see this page and has elected to bump it to the top of the showthread listing. Since HF doesn't want a ton of LQP

(Low Quality Posts) this is the best method of bumping your content. There is a small ?yte fee for each bump. Any OP can bump any of their threads on HF from the linked icon on the top of their first post.

If you haven't already read the first post of this thread we encourage you to do so.

Thanks,
Stanley

Oh I know you, you're the guy posting perfectly marketable reviews to coaching threads.

Well here i am agree with you as i see so many people sayd they have a method to make 1k daily then guess what they decide to sell the method for 100$

People need to stop beying so naive

While I'm aware that this thread/suggestion will probably catch some flack from a lot of vendors and OG members who've been taking advantage of this for years. Over a decade in some cases. I wholeheartedly agree with the sentiment of OP. It's really devolved the premium sellers section to say the least, and it's not the only area that this has spread to.

Why are we not putting blame on buyers? I don't think we can straight up filter/stop such moeny schemes because in the end, no one can be sure of whether what seller is selling is utter bullshit or no. I have personally bought couple of methods after verifying with sellers and they have worked out well for me. Its not any of those 500$ per day or $10k per month methods sure. But the point is, in the end, its buyer's responsibility to use their common sense, logic & reasoning to decide if they want to buy or not.

Some people take advantage of this? Yes they do. But I find the fault of buyers is more here than the sellers. We can't just filter out everything based on assumption of all methods don't work.

I agree, although I learned to stop buying from the MP a long time ago.

I have 1-2 sales thread but legitimate advertise what it entails.

I don't think responsibility should fall fully on the buyer; I think sellers should start being vetted with up-to-date profits/ or some type of Timestamp. That way their not selling 7 month old methods that -

- A. No longer work
- B. Profit margin decrease

Sellers would only feel hesitant to provide proof if their method is a sham or outdated to say the least.

If thread is x amount of days old > upload current profits.

I'm going to do OP a favor and separate them from all their problems with HF.

Problem solved. Thanks for the suggestion.
