How was everyone's day on this fine tuesday

jcole - July 11, 2023, 7:31 pm

My day is over, and I am about to get ready for bed for work tomorrow. I hope everyone has had a good Tuesday.

My Tuesday was alright, same shit different day as of recent. Going to Miami soon for rolling loud, though, so I'm hyped for that.

Currently working on getting this lounge head award, but 500 posts in 30 days is hard unless I'm out here creating hella threads that get responses and then I would need people to respond to my thread so that I can respond to their comments to post and get an extra post for the day.

I feel like 80% of the lounge section is filled with my name lol

Spent 6 hours training a new employee basically off-the-clock, long uneventful day lol. Time to smoke 8)

I am a recruiter for the "Three Letter" government contractors, pretty dull and unrewarding career but its merely a placeholder for me right now. Keeps food on the table and life comfortable.
