This is mighty suspicious considering you haven't been active in 5 years.

You can convert BTC to cash on cash app yourself. Just pull up your address and send it to yourself then convert.

You haven't been around in 5 years and suddenly show up wanting to do a 1 transaction $2500 CE. Very sus.

Matching country of registration and latest IP: No

I'm calling it. Account probably sold or compromised. This is a very common sign of an exit scam incomming.

I messaged OP about him going first & splitting it into however many deals he wants -- left on read so.

OP I can perform this trade for you no problem. We can use a bitcoin escrow site. You will pay any transfer fees incurred.

I'd be fine to use a MM -- don't be mad because I think you're a retard and have told you as such.

Why you giving hard time to OP. Just ask if he is willing to go first or use MM. Considering BTC is involved, MM is easily possible.

I'm sure Living. will do that. Don't you?

He went offline shortly after making this thread and never logged back on though.

I would do this trade in one transaction. Let me know.
