Dear HF!

For all the osrs runescape players out there that are in need of services.

If you are looking to get your account trained u might just found ur self a gem.

How did this start?

Two years ago during covid time I was getting back into playing RuneScape. I needed my account trained for deep wilderness pking. Luckily thru a friend I found someone who could do this for me. I was really happy! Especially the prices. 85-99 range for 90m which is less than 40 bucks. This woman is from Venezuela and still till today she is offering this service to make her self a living in Venezuela. I have talked to her so much and I'm really fascinated about the work she put in. Beside it being here actual "job" now. She even has her own account and truly enjoy the game. She works very professional and know all the ins and outs of the game.

This is a advertisement for my friend in Venezuela and I only hope to bring her more happy customers.

For everyone who got a service done thru HF ill post it down here ?
