Because of the +/-10 rep perk, yeah I'd agree with that.

Biggy - August 25, 2023, 7:01 pm

Let's not forget, this is a SALES thread, which has always been allowed in this section when selling a group.

If you don't like OP's price point, I have a suggestion for you: move on. It's his decision on what he wants to sell for, he isn't asking for opinions on it. Either offer, or don't.

Further posts derailing the thread or attempting to downgrade his price will be removed. Come on people, stop getting so worked up over someone else's business.

Solid price for the perks you receive.

Not many people understand how costly it is to get these perks (+/- 10, etc). A Fully upgraded group costs over 15-20k in upgrades.

He'd probably disallow it just because it'd be hard to read it at times:

as a potential buyer I want to know what determines such a high value b/c if the community doesnt care for a group why should i (not just monetary value)

when you buy a group on a forum, it's relevant to consider all aspects of aforementioned value including what the resale value might be conversations about the price is relevant and the title says obo imagine not being able to have an opinion on a forum

Can you go into the marketplace and debate on people's prices on every thread?

No.

Use the same logic here, because selling groups in this section is allowed, so it would be treated the same way a marketplace rule would be treated.

If you want to consider all aspects on the value of a group, you can do so yourself by researching, you don't need to give your opinion on what a group value should be, or what the OP should price his group at. That's his business and quite frankly, none of yours. You're getting into a debate when you have no leg to stand on.

You can have an opinion, but that opinion shouldn't derail a sales thread quite simply. Your opinion can also come in the form an offer, which you can see by the first page of this thread, offers valued much lower than OP's asking price wasn't removed. It was the opinions on price that were removed, because OP wasn't looking for that in, once again.... his SALES thread.

That's incorrect. The difference in how to make a profitable group... One good business model around the group. Two asset appreciation. Now likely only one of the two can happen or you start with one to end up with both ways of profit.

Since HF doesn't want a ton of LQP (Low Quality Posts) this is the best method of bumping your content. There is a small ?yte fee for each bump. Any OP can bump any of their threads on HF from the linked icon on the top of their first post.

You don't seem to understand that groups don't sell for prices like that anymore. You'd be considered lucky if you get $2k. No matter how many upgrades you made, it doesn't matter.

Just put it for $1,5-2,5k range and get it sold. Might take some time too.

You fail to realize i dont care.

it has not been 2 years yet since i even spent that much bud this is not a btc price exaggeration this is the usd amount spent at the time. So if i want to keep the price as is or not sell the group i think you should understand thats my prerogative. You should also note a +10 pop enabled group has not been sold yet and the price is actually fair if these are the perks you want associated with your usergroup.

That's true, 1 group that bought perks end of 2023 & start of 2024 paid a lot of money for perks including +4 popularity. I imagine +10 and other group perks must cost much more, even today for a new group.

Groups take years to sell for a solid price.

This sales thread is almost a year old in a few months.

Lifetime members will be transferred as part of the deal with whoever buys the group. You'll have to adhere to the new groups rules and we can't guarantee you stay their for lifetime, but we'll do our absolute best.

Groups come and go around here, none last forever.

i get What Migos is saying tho this is HIS shit, HE paid for and worked on. only +10 group ever put up for sale (we cant leave negatives until ub3r still tho) so its UNIQUE!!!

May i ask why the decision to sell/dissolve COINED? (IF they rebrand?)

This seems to be the dominant group am i mistaken assuming that?

i'm trying to justify a lifetime upgrade VS the chance of losing it in the future like you mentioned...

I make enough passive income to afford smaller upgrades... as we go... idk...

let me think for a sec, theres some moving parts to this i think need to be considered.

Like 99% of the companies ever have something called policy, Even if you violate a policy you can still lose your membership.

this group probably will never be sold because no one on this site can afford to purchase. I will not lower price more so no guarentee on them not purchasing but yes. If group is solid your lifetime changes to just some user in a group.

Group will always have its upgrades.
