Lag website. Trying to order the Call of duty. You don't have prices indicated on how much discount you can do.

Can you do valorant or other games? Will there be location/server issues?

For example you can only purchase this if the account is in asia server or turkish server etc.

Wait a moment today i published all topups and now im organising them sorry.. will be done after about 2 hours and then everything will be fine.

And regarding server question, the thing is not about server. It is sent through player id only.
