Really cool to see a contest like this existed and hope I can participate in the future!!!

Thanks I don't have Venmo. I have Paypal and Quora forced me to use Stripe which I feel like I don't have because I've never used it but I guess I have it because I signed up and God knows what my password is and Quora have not paid me because I've made 30 cents then the payment threshold or some shit.

The contest has concluded and OP has already selected the winner. I believe it's appropriate to close this thread now.
