That's actually a really interesting thought. I'd be quite curious as well to find out how many words anyone with that award has typed across their 24k posts. Of course it would be further interesting to know the amount for someone with a much greater amount of posts as well.

Even if this level of activity is only temporary given the award incentive, it's still really nice to see. Would be awesome if the point for instance had this much activity on the regular, but I know that isn't realistic. The majority of posts are just about the award after all.

Super expensive here yeah, I saw some barely used for $650 on craigslist, but my budget is more around $400.. maybe a used non refurbished leap v2, some are recent ones too.

Wow.

One suggestion : Avoid 'Sangoma' tribes there. They do this 'Muti' rituals to prepare medicine. This medicine is from animal, plant, human bones, flesh, organs etc...One thing to note here is : They cut human body parts only when they are alive. The more they scream, the better the quality of medicine preparation would be as they assume.

Google and you will know what I am talking about :)

Quite the journey to say the least. I give kudos to the few who have gotten there.

Do you think you will obtain it one day?

I'm at about 29%. It would be an awesome award to add to the collection for sure.

My progress is till dog shit, I am under 15% still. This would be likely last after getting MoH.

Laughing Man - October 21, 2023, 1:12 pm

I'd say that ultimately having events like the ones on going now for pumpkin and holiday awards should ultimately push people closer to the once coveted star.

Laughing Man - October 21, 2023, 5:35 pm

(Oct 21, 2023 05:32 PM)phantomman55 Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) I think it would bring people closer. However, I remember we used to have those massive lottos for the holidays. I think last year for Christmas and New years I did one.

I remember years back it was like massive like you could get 100k in bytes.

I miss the old lottery system when you could sell awards in raffles and eggs and stuff. I understand the change but maybe it's just nostalgia.

Laughing Man - October 21, 2023, 5:44 pm

(Oct 21, 2023 05:37 PM)phantomman55 Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Yeah, but I think the changes were needed because some people were abusing the system for monetary gains.

I miss the massive lottos for bytes where they used to make a thread with christmas theme graphics etc.

I remember there would be one for halloween, one for thanks giving, one for christmas nd one for New years.

Changes were needed because people kept abusing the bytes system and since bytes do have some fiscal value I understood the change.

It also prevented people from playing HUM to just sell eggs.

I assume people probably spamming or something. What was the requirement to get that? Popularity/Reputation right? Giveaways and stuff? More Posts etc?

That seems like a logical reason to end it for sure. Just rep farming. The only the requirement.
Whoever received the most amount of rep for the month obtained the award.

I mean yea but I see no point in rep anymore. I much prefer B-ratings. Its easier to get rep when u had none initially but now you gotta llike do giveaways or just nonsense stuff in order to farm for the award.
