$20 a few weeks ago for me technically. Nothing really special to be honest, I was just dumb and it was only $20 so it wasn't a big deal ?

Haven't personally been scammed for ages. I think the biggest one was a long time ago for a few hundred euros or something

DNA - November 3, 2023, 7:34 pm

I once got scammed for a cheeseburger haha

"Excuse me, I'm very hungry, could you help me out with something to eat?", "Sure, no worries bud, order yourself a large meal, grab me a cheeseburger while you're at it"

RIP Undelivered Cheeseburger

Deany - November 3, 2023, 7:41 pm

When you ask them to order something, be prepared that they forgot ?

A thousand dollars have gone in the air because of my greediness. I'm aware that it is a scam but still went through. ?

Mutiny - November 4, 2023, 4:51 am

Never been scammed and purchased plenty of things from the internet, just doing your due diligence will most often times prevent this from happening, and also remembering the saying if its too good to be true, it probably is.

I get scammed at least 1 time every year.

Wanna elaborate on how that happened? ?

Year 2014, someone promised to give me this much interest per month in exchange for my investment. They gave me some of my money for 3 months straight and in the 4th month, they're gone.

In short, I'm a victim of the good old Pyramid Scheme. I would be getting more money if only I was early.

So I learned my lesson and did it when NFT boomed. ?

At least you got something back ? Even though, that sounds suspicious asf from the start.

My greed does really get the best of me. ?

That's why whenever money is involved, I keep myself in check.

So how much did you get back from your initial 1k?

Laughing Man - November 4, 2023, 10:00 pm

I can't say I've ever really been scammed. I also use paypal for everything so I rarely lose my disputes.

It seems you've learned about the past ?

For me I guess just a little $20 but that was 10 years ago ?

That's much better to learn from the past and you know what to do with those scammers on how to avoid them.

I suppose general knowledge also helps. If it sounds too good to be true, it's usually a scam.

Two sentences I thought I would never hear together.

Oh I'm a business account, things fall in my favor very often.

Yea I had a business account.

After about 20 successful disputes in my favour (and 0 son against me) they closed me, killing a business in the process and destroying 15k a month income as well.

Just remember to be cautious and not keep a large balance in the account, and if you do and they give you a termination, you can send them a GDPR request and they'll give you everything back in 14 days (not 180).

Here I am over a year later, still trying to recover.

They first stated that I needed to provide automated logs containing user agents, ip, etc, but did not give me the opportunity to correct the technical issues before applying a total ban.

Thankfully I was withdrawing at the end of every business day using instant withdrawals.

sorry to hear that.
