Thread: You have destroyed the enemy hackuman

WebArt - October 12, 2023, 7:23 am

first time i destroy someone's hakuman. its very nice experience

but i want to know when my stats will full again? or what i have to do to full it. i already feed it 100%

DemonAsylum - October 12, 2023, 7:24 am

Stats passively regen over time and having your food bar more filled up makes that process faster. Alternatively you can buy potions with bytes to immediately regen health and or attack.

Yeah it's pretty much this, another tip I can give it to buy the right potions for the level of your hackuman, other than that this pretty much sums it up.

You're very welcome. You must have overlooked the potions previously or gotten mixed up about where they are maybe. The shop to buy potions and then your home page to use them are always there :)

Congrats on your first kill of the season (maybe ever?) and no promises on my not attacking you ?

Eggs lottery was already a thing previously and got disabled by Omni. It makes the game too pay to win which was one of the major complaints many had about it. I tend to agree.

He has an alarm clock set up for when your potion expires and will annihilate it before you can buy another

Night Storm - October 12, 2023, 9:22 am

I tried killing other's Hackuman from my newly hatched Dragon but it dies all the time.

How does one make their hackuman strong to withstand all attacks and choose victim to destroy?

i think first make your hum more powerful by upgrading with same color eggs.

I tried feeding my hum but it gave error 'Your hum is already full'. So, I bought some magic potion from the store (which can help my hum recover from attacks). But, it was still killed in an attack and when I tried to restore it, there is nothing to be found.

Not sure, what went wrong there.

WebArt - October 12, 2023, 9:47 am feeding is not enough. you have to power up everything.

Aeowulf - October 12, 2023, 1:21 pm

If he killed you first, that chances a lot of things, I'd say let's team up and kill that Freagle!

I actually don't know, I don't think I attacked him until he killed me. Pretty sure I left it up weak and low on HP.

I was about to kill his other HUM but he got to the invis in time. Was just 7HP away, maybe 4 clicks more.

Next time WebArt

Alien8ed - October 13, 2023, 12:37 am

I was absolutely demoralized by the game, after raising my Haku with so much love and seeing him die like that. To have a chance in the game, you have to spend thousands of Bytes building an army and then hide them all using potions.

You will be a good player once you have experienced such things bro, come back with much more stronger hum with good approach and tactic on the game.

Godofcrypto - October 13, 2023, 12:51 am

I hatched about seven eggs now. Everything got dead almost immediately.

I refuse to hatch eggs anymore. I prefer to watch them die under my profile.

The last time was traumatic... It turns out that I entered the forum, saw that I was being attacked, and tried to buy an invincibility potion to see if I could hide my Hakuman ?. When I tried to apply the potion, it was already too late. ??????????

I totally agree with you on the fact that I don't have the slightest idea on how to play this game.

Oh yean and you feel the hype somehow hahaha. There were threads for the HUM game you could check it out brother. Here's one thread from flavoral <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=6048790> and hoping it will help you to bring the best out of your hum

I don't plan on incubating any more eggs, it's an excessive byte expense. It would only be acceptable if I ever tried to play more seriously, but we would still be talking about spending thousands and thousands of bytes constantly.
