This is my story with Mr. Robot.(It lasted for 6 months.)

I registered my account on HF platform on April 13th, 2023.

On April 15th, I signed the first contract with Mr Robot ($1,000).

I need to get some data. Mr. Robot told me that he could help me get the data. Need me to sign up for his course. I asked Mr. Robot. How long can I get the data after registration? He told me it would take 20 hours. Then I transferred 1000 dollars BTC to Mr. Robot. We signed the first contract.

Then Mr. Robot sent me some websites to learn. I still can't get the data after a long time.

Then Mr. Robot told me that if I transferred an extra $5,000, he would personally get the data for me. Then I transferred 5000 dollars for Mr. Robot. This is the second contract ($5,000) I signed with Mr. Robot.

Then a long time passed. Data that I still can't get. Then Mr. Robot told me that he had 100% access to the data. He needs me to transfer another 2000 dollars. I asked Mr. Robot, and I transferred an extra $2,000. How soon can I get the data? Mr. Robot told me that he would get the data in 1-2 days. Then I transferred another $2,000 to Mr. Robot (this transfer was not signed in HF). Many days passed. It has been six months since the first contract was signed. But I still haven't got the data. I told Mr. Robot that if this project is too difficult to complete. We can change to another project. But Mr. Robot never replied to me.

I chatted with Mr. Robot through discord. I used DiscordChatExporter to export all the chat records. I can send all the complete chat records to the administrator (if the administrator needs them) to prove that what I said is true.

The purpose of my public dispute is not to recover the $8,000 I paid. And I don't need Mr. Robot to respond to me. Just to make public our real trading process.

Don't know what to say but 8k is huge.

I hope you get your money back.

Thank you for your reply. I never thought I could get my money back. Mr. Robot keeps saying that he is busy. He just replies to my message every few days and then goes to work. It cost me six months.

Thank you for your reply.?

Before signing the contract with Mr. Robot, I consulted Mr. Robot's information. He appeared in Hack Forums Wiki, and he was on the list of famous members. And he is an old member of HF. So I transferred money directly for Mr. Robot.

Just because he was willing to send $10k doesn't mean you should be trusted with $10k LMFAOOOOO. Trying to get him to continue working with you by posting saying you can expedite his project on a $8k scam report is crazy.

If you don't think I can be trusted with $10k, that's your own issue. $10k is nothing to me. I wasn't even talking to you to begin with.

Also there was never a "continue working with me", he is LITERALLY waiting for me to tell him to pay me. I've been talking to this user for weeks on Discord. He is going to send it regardless, he's waiting for me to have time to do his project; not the other way around. I'm offering to help him and get his project started sooner. I'm not getting extra money or trying to convince him to send me anything. All I'm doing is saying I'll start the project we already agreed upon earlier because he seems like a cool guy and I felt bad seeing this.

This is an already established deal. Completely separate from what Mr. Robot was paid to do. Perhaps you would have known that if it was your business to begin with.

Have a good day :)

The fact that OP sent $8k to Mr. Robot without any hesitation speaks volumes. I don't care what $10k is to you or who you are, Imfao. He should be more cautious with his funds rather than sending large amounts to randoms on HF without any sort of escrow. Your first post was tasteless and makes you look like a bum.

I don't think you should wait for Mr. Robot to dispute your claims before posting evidence.

You're saying he scammed you, which right now is just a baseless claim without direct evidence. I'm not saying I don't believe you, however I do think for transparency purposes the chat logs should be publicized for everyone to see.

Mr. Robot seldom replies to my messages. So I waited for six months. This is the last thing I want to see.

I didn't disclose the chat record because it involved some intrusive content. If the HF administrator needs it, I will send a complete chat record. If Mr. Robot denies what I said. I will consider blocking the websites involved in the chat record and making the chat record public.

Mr. Robot replied to me, but I was confused by his reply.

That's such a BS reply lol. I think you won't be seeing that money any time soon.

Please use MM for all your next deals. It's really needed if you are frequently dealing with these amounts. I'm sure there are plenty of people who you can trust directly but still it doesn't hurt at all using an MM.

Nostre - October 14, 2023, 4:25 am

Lukasi you NEED to use a MM. High-value account or not, anyone is capable of scamming, especially for 4+ figures. I hate to put it in such a way that makes me sound like an asshole, but a lot of these people have never seen thousands let alone have it in their bank accounts. They will take that kind of money and run, just like this dickhead did.

You threw money at him whenever he asked and you didn't question it; not once.

- Spent eight years in HackForums;
- Dedicated his time to write 40 thousand posts;
- Awards available for a thousand dollars on his profile;
- Have an HF tattoo on him (someone mentioned that);
- Over 2k popularity rating;

- Huge trust from the HF community;

He must be a brain-dead dumb person to swap everything he had for a $8k scam.

Not to disrespect the amount, it's a lot of money, but they can be earned in a few short months of work, why not just a month of dedicated work?

There are much better ways to use your profile and earn much over this amount, at the same time, have the respect of everyone in this community.

Sorry I didn't have time earlier today to look into this and make a response. I do have the time now though.

This situation is incredibly disappointing. I won't claim to know what's going through Mr. Robot's mind about exit-scamming for $8k but that's indeed what it appears to be. Unfortunately this isn't the worst exit-scam HF has seen nor will it be the last.

I have sent Mr. Robot an email giving him 48 hours to respond to me else his account will be closed. I could close the account now but the entire point of Deal Disputes isn't to punish scammers but to attempt a resolution of Disputes. I don't wish to see Lukasi lose $8k. Nor do I want to close a previously reputable member who offered solid content to the community.

So the clock is ticking. Sucks.

This is my story with Mr. Robot.(It lasted for 6 months.)

I registered my account on HF platform on April 13th, 2023.

On April 15th, I signed the first contract with Mr Robot ($1,000).

I need to get some data. Mr. Robot told me that he could help me get the data. Need me to sign up for his course. I asked Mr. Robot. How long can I get the data after registration? He told me it would take 20 hours. Then I transferred 1000 dollars BTC to Mr. Robot. We signed the first contract.

Then Mr. Robot sent me some websites to learn. I still can't get the data after a long time.

Then Mr. Robot told me that if I transferred an extra $5,000, he would personally get the data for me. Then I transferred 5000 dollars for Mr. Robot. This is the second contract ($5,000) I signed with Mr. Robot.

Then a long time passed. Data that I still can't get. Then Mr. Robot told me that he had 100% access to the data. He needs me to transfer another 2000 dollars. I asked Mr. Robot, and I transferred an extra $2,000. How soon can I get the data? Mr. Robot told me that he would get the data in 1-2 days. Then I transferred another $2,000 to Mr. Robot (this transfer was not signed in HF). Many days passed. It has been six months since the first contract was signed. But I still haven't got the data. I told Mr. Robot that if this project is too difficult to complete. We can change to another project. But Mr. Robot never replied to me.

I chatted with Mr. Robot through discord. I used DiscordChatExporter to export all the chat records. I can send all the complete chat records to the administrator (if the administrator needs them) to prove that what I said is true.

The purpose of my public dispute is not to recover the $8,000 I paid. And I don't need Mr. Robot to respond to me. Just to make public our real trading process.

Sorry for your loss, but I doubt your going to see the money back. MR robot is a known scammer, also made a sex game, he gofunded and made thousands to buy 3090 TI's for a fake game.

Glad omni has given him 48 hours to respond, he's a parasite to this community.

He banned himself for 6 months. He is gone for good, so is your money.

Take this loss as a lesson and utilize a middleman in your future deals.

Such a dick move, and extremely unfair on OP who I've spoken with on a few occasions and has been nothing but friendly, polite and reasonable. Hope this can get resolved asap.

People really underestimate the value of being on HF. No amount of money is worth it for an exit scam if you truly utilize HF for it's values.

Guess it all really depends on the person though. Desperation makes people do dirty things.

My IRL job makes me too much to come online and have to scam. Not that I'm rich by any means, but also not hurting for cash in the slightest.

You're forgetting the morals and ethics behind it as well. No amount of money should make an honest man question their morals.

An exit scammer lacks the moral and ethical compass that most reasonable well rounded people in society have.

Couldn't agree with you more. I wouldn't be able to stomach the fact that I took an innocent person's money that they worked for. Shit would eat at my soul everyday.

I never touched a single penny of the $200,000+ I've held for people. They always receive it when disbursement is requested. Hence why I'm #1 HF MM since the untimely departure of Kill Joy.

Lukasi I'm sure someone else has already made this suggestion; but please, please, please in the future, use a trusted Middleman here on HF for your next marketplace deal. $8k is no joke to lose, I'm sorry this happened to you.

In fact on that note, I'll offer to MM your next deals, valuing up to $2,500 - absolutely free of charge. I'd hate for this deal here to be your last taste in the HF marketplace. ?

Offer to MM for free > Acquire 100k > send it to exchange > oh no its "locked"

Or the consistent asking for more and more money... without any proof of delivery.

After first payment I wouldn't have sent more money. That's a little too naive.

I will admit I always got those vibes, but he seemed to be held in high regard by staff so it didn't feel worth commenting on. Something always rubbed me the wrong way with him though, so it's sad that those feelings are confirmed in this kinda way!

Always how it is, but it's because you get banned for saying someone is dodgy and a scumbag if they don't exit scam for $5k+ first.

Also because HF users are scared of negative rep and want to kiss everyone's ass until they can't negative rep them back.
