Thread: Whats the biggest mistake you ever made

CrypticHatter - October 15, 2023, 8:04 am

Whats up HF

So answer me this at any given time in your life whats the BIGGEST mistake you made rather it being gambling, getting pulled over, etc

Mine was driving while high i thought i was the shit i didn't even notice my check engine light then literary a few streets down my engine overheated all because i never refilled my coolant tank ?

now mind you i was in a rush to get to my friends house why you ask dude was tripping bad like seeing his sleep paralysis demons and shit.

I was stranded on the side of the street and whats crazy is the nearest auto shop was 2 hours away i wish i kept a little emergency stash of car stuff now i keep in mind check fluids before i go because that day really concerned me.

I never figured out what happened to my friend or if he was okay but yea he was fine we went to olive garden the next day we even stopped in the bathroom (we hotboxed that shit with his fat ass cart)

Financially: Few years ago I had 3-4 bitcoins, I regret not holding (they were worth under 1k back then)

Generally: Not focusing more on my career the past few years, don't get me wrong I live comfortably but I'm sure I could have done better.

But rather than keep on regretting, I would rather push forward and improve myself one step at a time.

Comrade - October 15, 2023, 9:41 am

I had 7 bitcoins in 2013, when BTC was approx. 300$, i sold all of em'
I still regret it.....

Everyone makes mistakes, but there's always another opportunity around the corner.

Nothing wild, but not sticking to convictions on certain trades.

Have lefts 100k+ on the table unfortunately. But ay, no one can time the market.

Yeah too many people like that. Bunch of idiots who end up lonely and broke because of their own deeds.

I didn't trust my intuition and got stabbed, I'll guess this is at least one of the biggest mistakes what I have done.

You're nobody til somebody kills you.

I don't trust anyone that hasn't been shot or stabbed.

Don't have to get stabbed. Just have to do martial arts.

LOUD - October 15, 2023, 2:29 pm

Lmao wild story, OP! Glad it all kinda worked out with your friend.

Dumbest shit I have done was crashing my dirtbike and tearing my ACL + shattering my wrist a few years ago.

I was pushing the limits on this bike at the time and it caught up with me.

But hey, ya live and ya learn!

i would probably kms

anyways i was looking over yander at your bytes... mind if i borrow some

4N0NY - October 15, 2023, 8:40 pm

Trusting the wrong people in my life was my biggest mistake. I lost almost everything in my life. They backstabbed me because of greed.

Dorrance - October 15, 2023, 8:43 pm

Biggest mistake was putting too much trust in some people and not cutting off friendships sooner.

Alien8ed - October 15, 2023, 9:39 pm

Not having bought bitcoin in 2011 and 2012, I already knew what it was and I was skeptical.???

Cutting off people who drain your energy is a must.

Most people would do that but I'm not like most people. I made the 20k back in no time.

Nah I don't do loans.

Facts. Most who are a waste of time and closed minded

WebArt - October 16, 2023, 5:35 am i spend lots of time for girls in my early days.

that's my biggest mistake i think

V?rt - October 16, 2023, 7:03 am

I'd say my biggest mistake would be wasting time on meaningless things. I still make these mistakes and have regrets on it but I'll learn eventually.

One simple advice changed everything : "Have a clear Goal"

It is very simple. Nothing fancy. Cheers bro ?

That's a great bit of advice. I definitely need to go into each day with a list of 5 goals.

Goals such as making your bed or washing the dishes is already great to put you on track.

I'm planning to write some long term goals and strategies soon

That would be a good way to organize yourself. One tip, do not fill your goal list with lot of things. Just use your priority of current time and make a list of goals.

Damn, that's wild, man! Biggest mistake for me? Trusting some dodgy bloke with my time 'cause he promised mad returns on a "guaranteed" winnings after website was done. Learned the hard way. Always be skeptical of shit that sounds too good to be true. On the upside, sounds like you and your mate had a mad recovery at Olive Garden, haha! Live and learn, yeah?

Biggest thing is start being proactive and just doing things no second guessing.

Blazin - October 16, 2023, 8:19 pm

My biggest mistake is coming to this thread.

ragerminer777 - October 18, 2023, 1:22 pm

I put gpu mining malware for eth in a Walmart display laptop, it made me like 60 bucks a month more or less. I guess they took down the laptop for a newer one when I saw it disappear in my pool, and I went back to do it again (via usb stick) and they caught me, I'm guessing they were expecting it because it was the same guy
