hahah the drop caught me off by guard, but too high pitch for me but otherwise chilled out nice.

if you make it i must say its good. but i think you must think about sound quality some tone make my ear broken

I like the first part of the sound but as said by WebArt some notes sound too high (from 00:47), and sometimes I feel that something is saturating (like at 1:15).

I really feel the chill vibe at the beginning then with these notes I'm not in a chill mood and it barely hurt my ears ^^

But you released a lot of songs I appreciated and it's the only part I'm not really fond of for the moment

Nice that you changed your username by the way ?
