neat!

Let's go Pink!

I'm going to hold off on buying until we get some feedback from users.

We have a strong user base of 120 active individuals who are already using our software.
Therefore, we cannot provide free vouch copies at this time.

Any of them on HF who can vouch? Otherwise again being 120 in TG isn't much for people on HF.

Very happy you decided to make this public. Been looking forward to seeing it since your post about it.

I'll have to get some btc and give it a go for a month.

Will a proxy or vpn need to be an add on purchase in terms of safety with this bot like others?
