Thread: My First Award - Octoberfest 2023 - Finally I won!

Night Storm - October 18, 2023, 5:58 am

Hey Everyone,

So, this was my first award here on HF. It was definitely an amazing experience.

All this wouldn't have been possible without below members:

account_ : Thank you for always checking and motivating people to progress.

Komodo : You were part of the journey too. You made me opt for that Gym membership. <3

?nxy : You reminded me of my first RAT victim. That was amazing to have conversation with you :)

Bastille : Thank you for motivating me to take part in other sections - White Hat activity. I still remember you home office setup idea. I am gonna work on that.

I met lots of people here during this and I must say. These awards are amazing to keep members active on forum.

Aeowulf - October 18, 2023, 6:02 am

Congrats on the Purple Pumpkin! Good to see a few more people snagging it before it ends.

Endorphins - October 18, 2023, 6:04 am

Looking good on you and congratulations on your first award minus those dying eggs. RIP to all unborn Hackuman.

Yeah, those eggs will probably die. I had tried hatching them in past but eventually someone always kills my Hackuman. So, yeah I'll just let them go ;/

Hey, Thank you so much bro. Forgot to mention you in my thread :)

Koyote - October 18, 2023, 8:02 am

Congratulations! Did you find it hard to achieve? I've not gotten far yet, wondering if I'll get it this year.

Ninja is easy but I got post ban and it broke the flow. No worries, I'll get it eventually.

What your next award goals ?

(Oct 18, 2023 08:16 AM)Focus Broken Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) How did you get the pumpkin without also getting the Lounge Head?

I was active in other forum sections too. The award didn't only came because of Lounge activity. :)

All it requires you to be actively engaging with members. Participate in conversation with HQ posts.

What is your current progress in Octoberfest?

Still looking for some HQ threads to dive into!

I've just got Hack Game, Businessman, 24k Posts, 10 Year Member, and the Halloween award to get now.

Why not start by posting a HQ thread ?

It's a good way to create engagement here and at the same time you get rewarded for doing so.

All my threads are HQ! But nah I've posted a few already, not gonna spam things out as that's just lazy. Just contributing here and there as I go, eventually I'll get a burst of inspiration and smash out a load of posts.

Sounds good really.

Same for me, I do like to contribute and engage with people. Making LQ posts is definitely not a good way to communicate and neither it displays a good posting etiquettes.

I think either last year or the year before, there was this one user who kept posting stuff about his balls in response to every post/thread he saw. Didn't take long to get shut down lol something just reminded me of it

Convo, group sf would be a great place to ask for some QL and hosting members contest is another way ?
