Same thing over here, with the current PPD I have which is 50- ish, and I still need like 21k posts.

$21000/50 = 420$ days / 30 = 14 months left for me.

Yeah... I've been here 11 years, so I'll get it in about 14 years.

With these contests though, I might end up getting it sooner. So we shall see.

Quadruple?

Bro, The current activity requires me to stay online for more than 5-6 hrs /day. It is already hard. I don't know how to just quadruple it.

I think, making quality threads that pushes member to engage more with your post is the way.

You forgot one variable here: " TIME ".

With so much activity, you will need to leave your real life work and just sit here and engage ?

I think, it is easy if you are young, people with jobs will have hard time to stay this much active.

Do it while raising 4 kids. Not easy fugger. ?

Godofcrypto - October 19, 2023, 12:20 am

You have to post about 30 posts per day for exactly two years, typically taking about two hours of activity every day if you want to provide quality posts to the community.

Two years later, after spending about 60 days of posting, you might get the award.

I think this is the most challenging and most time-consuming award to get.

Over the past few weeks, life has been incredibly hectic, with a series of personal challenges. My son was unwell for three days, and it was quite distressing for me. However, today he's showing signs of improvement which brings me immense relief and I'm hopeful that this weekend will provide a wonderful opportunity for us to bond together at home and stress free. ?

That's taking way too much math into it tbh. Most people will probably get odd post increases, with a lot one day, not so much the next, maybe even more after that, etc etc..

Oh I genuinely plan on being here for a very long time to come. I have no intention on leaving HF anytime soon, just no reason to. I've legit always been able to balance my career with HF properly time-wise, and HF is a huge stress-relief for me as I'm sure it is for many other members.

HF has become more than just a forum for me, it's definitely by far my online home. ?

But hey, you're just around the corner yourself! ?

Yeah I'm getting closer and closer. Right now I'm currently at 29% and I was only at 21% at the start of the day iirc.

When I really go to post I tend to churn them out quickly, but still keeping them quality.

I'm sort of the same in that regard. I won't always be super active, but I'll always pop in and stick around to chat and assist when needed.
