Blessed part is enough to overcome

Koyote - October 25, 2023, 1:12 am

Blessed in that I have my wife, my health and our home, but cursed in that I feel very tired these last few days, and have a lot to do in the garden and home that I can't really get to either because of weather or my in-laws being here for now. Ups and downs!

Tell us why ?

Crowned - October 25, 2023, 5:47 am

It's all about the mindset, I'd say. There are certainly days where my mind just tries to get negative thoughts to me, but as long as I can identify it and ignore it/stop it then every day is a blessing.

Having another chance at life is more than enough for me to feel blessed. Everything else is a plus.

No Bra - October 25, 2023, 6:00 am

I'm doing good too, just taking things one day at a time and trying to find something positive in every day.

I remember watching that as well. If that doesn't change your perspective on life, nothing will. ?

V?rt - October 25, 2023, 6:21 am

I sure am. I'm down and have a lot of things kicking me but I'm just feeling good today. Hoping this will turn around soon

Biggs - October 25, 2023, 6:22 am

Always feeling blessed, we are still breathing so there is nothing to complain about is the mentality.

Yeah, The weather was really nice today, so I spent some time outside. It made me feel happy and refreshed. How about you? Did you find something positive in your day.

You?

The moment I wake up in the morning, I always thank the Lord for the new life He has given me, a new day and new blessing.

Jinu - October 25, 2023, 9:01 am

Living with good health is more important than anything. And that's a blessing too. Having a lot of money and not having a good health is waste.

Slumerican ? - October 26, 2023, 1:47 am

Every day is a blessing, though sometimes emotions and overthinking can make it challenging. I might feel sad, overwhelmed, or tired, but my gratitude remains unwavering each and every day.

Proof - October 26, 2023, 1:52 am

I am still alive, so I'll say yes given the circumstances!

Broheim - October 28, 2023, 3:13 am

No, I took an at home test and nothing. I am assuming it was the flu or a serious cold.

I am doing much better now, though!
