Thread: Leadership Request

neightworks. - October 30, 2023, 9:21 pm

Will someone please make me a leader of their group? I don't even want to be in it so you don't have to worry about me doing anything, I just want the shortcut to the groups page without having to go to Extras>Groups.

Multiple group owners may accept this request for clout, however I only require one of you.

Thanks,
Jesus

I honestly don't see why anyone would give up this opportunity, someone make this man a deal.

Make a userscript and you can have the button to that page wherever you want.
