Where ya at?

Just found out my personality type is "INFJ - A"

? I thought I was an extrovert for years lol. Explains a lot of things.

You can check out yours if you use an MBTI test (:

I'm very confident that I'm an introvert, but I've never taken these tests, as they kinda seem pointless to me. Maybe someone here could change my mind and explain to me what's the benefit of such tests

DashPHP - November 3, 2023, 9:44 am

Its kinda fun, but also slightly insightful? Depends where you're at, what you're doing, what you're into. Definitely just a vibe thing.

Introverted to the point it's almost crippling, shy but i know how to talk but on the inside i feel like passing out talking to strangers. Grew up all alone so I enjoy the lonely peace.

Google "16 personalities mbti test" it's the first one. I don't want to post a link directly

I think your mentality is a bit misunderstood here though.

Introversion just means you recharge energy alone

What's with these letters determining your personality? Is it kind of a zoomer thing that I'm too millennial to understand?

So, there's a psychologist "Carl Jung" who developed this system a long long time ago.

It's a tool of insight. Basically a bit of biased profiling.

Interesting like the one where you check what you see in those splattered ink. I might take one as well.

Should try it out!

I found out I'm "INFJ-A" :)

Hungry4Knowledge - November 4, 2023, 1:52 am

Was it the 16personalities dot com test?

For me it gave the result: Logician

"Logicians are innovative inventors with an unquenchable thirst for knowledge."

Guess I have a fitting username.

Also quite introverted

" 75% Introverted "

I don't know the website but I took 60+ questions and it gave me an ISTP letter. I know that I'm an introvert but I have no idea about other things. This might be my confirmation bias.

Hell yeah! You're the "get shit done" type, it says :)

Trisulfide - November 8, 2023, 3:48 pm

I did this when I was younger and then a couple more times every few years, just for curiosity sake. It was interesting to see how my answer changed just the slightest. Defo was an introvert every time tho

Trust - November 8, 2023, 3:56 pm

I'm a mediator - INFP.

Always trying to please people.

Carl Elias - November 11, 2023, 4:33 pm

I am without a doubt mostly an introvert, but do have random burst of extrovert tendencies. A lot of it has to do with some social issues I have that stem from events growing up.

I have taken that test once or twice in the past, but do not pay much attention to it since it has mostly been proven unreliable and not a good tool since it is biased and the same person can take the same test 2 times and get opposite results. It really just is a snapshot of your personality in that given moment.

4chan.org/bl - November 11, 2023, 8:00 pm

I got INTP-A , im def a introvert.
