Thread: Hacker for hire today?

theylive999999999 - November 3, 2023, 7:51 am

I reached out to this site hackerforhiretoday. The person I spoke to said he could fix my problems with facebook and CL. The problem is that I keep getting flagged. Not sure who or what is causing this issue. I don't sell much, I don't spam and I have never ripped anyone off or had any issues with any body that I have sold something to. Anyway This guy from hackerforhiretoday said he could fix this issue for $400. He said that he could make me a moderator on facebook and CL. Does this sound like a scam to anyone? I'm new to all of this so excuse me if I sound ignorant to hacking abilities (Because I am?). Any kind of thoughts, comments or direction in this matter would be greatly appreciated!

I am sure it is a scam. Most of the websites claiming to be provide hacking services are scams. Do not risk your time and money with non trusted sources. Better to use Escrow/MM in all the cases.

100% a scam. Don't trust anything like that. Facebook barely has staff.

In my heart I felt it was a scam.....but I'm so sick of fighting to get my facebook account and CL accounts unbanned that I'm getting desperate It's really the only way I can make any money since I'm a stay at home parent because I refuse to let my kid go to public school. I have a new member on this site that said they would help seems like a nice person. Just want to do it right and I'm looking into all options. I'm not looking to do anything bad all I want is to list my stuff with out being kicked off, shadow banned..ect. I just wish I knew how some people spam post ..ect and their stuff is always at the top of the searches on Craigslist. Yet I put 1 or 2 legit items for sale and I'm flagged or suspended. And facebook market place holy crap I can't even breath on there with out being thrown in jail or market place banning me.

Buddy, no one can make you mod on FB.

Don't waste your time on this.

I thought it was to good to be true.....but man I was so thrilled at the possibility. I have been making new accounts and using different phones computer's and vpns...ect for years to keep selling stuff on those platforms. It's getting harder to do.

Please do not use that website. It is risky and seems like a 100% scam. Try to talk to support of the actual problem.

Scam for sure. All that websites pray on people without any knowledge to find them over google, FB or other places, where their reputation cannot be checked or it's faked.

Thank you for your input....I'm going to take my time and talk to different people. I'm defiantly not sending anyone money with out having a MM. And also looking for someone with a long standing account on here makes a lot of sense.?

thanks for the input! It makes sense. I was just getting so aggravated with these cl&FBaccounts

Anyone in account recovery is lying. Most. Because if you have the skills for account recovery, you are not actively advertising THAT. There are FAR more lucrative ways to make money with such a skill set.

seriouserial - November 5, 2023, 4:29 pm

That's a sure scam. Very sure about that.

Hey are you able to get me nectar codes ?

OP sadly those websites are run by scammers praying on desperate persons. That makes them easy prey,stay away from all those empty promises.

Try to take your situation to the CL staff and hope they resolve your issue.

Best of Luck OP
