I am looking for both front-end and back-end hard working individuals who know how to write in Python, HTML, Javascript, C# ETC. Full-stack developers are 100% welcomed! I have several projects waiting to be completed and my current partners are busy with other projects.

If you have experience or a portfolio showcasing your previous work I would love to see it. Please do not message me or open a contract if you can not deliver. Do not waste both of our time. I reserve the right to deal with who I want.

Consider stating the amount of payment upfront to avoid wasting time for both parties involved.
